INTRO

HAGRID

Ah, there yeh are! About a year ago you were such a big help returnin' creatures to the forest, I thought maybe yeh'd be willin' to help out again.

Yeh see, the Calamity's set somethin' loose that shouldn't be. Somethin' dangerous. It's burned a path right through the Forbidden Forest!

HERMIONE

Hagrid, are you saying that there is actual physical damage being done in the Forbidden Forest? By a Foundable?

HAGRID

Aye. Seems like maybe so. Something burned that path - and it wadn't no angry Blast-ended Skrewt, I can tell yeh.

HERMIONE

This is terrible news. If the creatures stolen by the Calamity have started affecting the environment outside of the Traces? This might be a real disaster.

BRILLIANT NEWT SCAMANDER

HAGRID

Merlin's beard! You met Newt Scamander? Amazin' bloke. Wrote the book on Magizoology, he did.

HERMIONE

I think it is safe to assume that if a Foundable version of Newt could affect the world, he certainly wouldn't set fire to it.

DRAGON CLAW

HAGRID

Now that's interestin'. Dragon Claws are valuable to Potion-makers, but they aren't easy to get hold of, on account of 'em being attached to Dragons.

DRAGON HIDE GLOVES

HAGRID

Dragon-Hide Gloves, eh? They're dead useful when you're handlin' creatures what don't want to be handled.

FIRE CRAB

HAGRID

I've got some experience with Fire Crabs, and they generally won't blast yeh if yeh don't provoke 'em, but if you do? One of 'em nearly cost me my beard once.

FIRESEED BUSH

HERMIONE

Hagrid, could a Fire Seed Bush do the damage to the Forest that you saw?

HAGRID

A Fire Seed Bush could certainly start a fire, but nothin' like that. I think we're lookin' for somethin' packing a bit more of a punch.

UKRANIAN IRONBELLY

HAGRID

Oooh, a Ukrainian Ironbelly, of course! Beautiful creatures, and great fire-breathers... well, that explains the state of the forest, dunnit?

HERMIONE

Can we be sure THIS dragon Foundable burned the Forest?

HAGRID

Well, since the Calamity returned her to her home, we're not goin' to get a chance to ask her, are we? But this does remind me...

I did see a rather large creature flying about late last night. Thought it might be a bird. Coulda been an Ironbelly. But she weren't stuck in a Trace at all. She was flyin' free.

HERMIONE

Hagrid, I think I have something I need you to do. I need you to go find us an Ironbelly.

END

HAGRID

The Forbidden Forest's more like its old self now it's regained some o' its missin' creatures. Thanks for all yer help - couldn't've done it without yeh!
